Residents Encouraged to Participate in El Niño Blanket Drive

El Monte, Calif. — With powerful El Niño rainstorms expected to continue to heavily impact the community, the City of El Monte is reminding residents that they are conducting a “Blanket Drive” to help the homeless and local needy families stay warm during the winter season.

Residents and businesses are urged to donate blankets, warm clothing, new socks and hygiene products.

Donations may be dropped off between the hours of 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays at the El Monte/South El Monte Emergency Resources Association (ERA) located at 10900 Mulhall St., Building G, Room 28.

Donations will be accepted through Tuesday, Jan. 26.

For more information, call 626-444-7269.
