This meeting shall be conducted in compliance with the procedures set forth under AB361 which allows local legislative bodies to continue conducting virtual meetings under certain emergency circumstances without strictly complying with traditional Brown Act teleconferencing requirements, so long as there is a live comment option for public comments, meetings are paused for any technical difficulties that affect public participation, and each agenda contains information on how to access the meeting as well as how to participate in public comment virtually. The El Monte City Council has availed itself of the procedures of AB361 for meetings of the City of El Monte's Legislative Bodies by resolution last approved at its meeting of October 4, 2022.

Members of the public wishing to observe the meeting and provide public comment may do so in one of the following ways:
